

Key Statistical Data

CAS Members

At the end of 2008, there were 692 CAS members, including 40 female members, 134 from Division of Mathematics and Physics, 120 from Division of Chemistry, 124 from Division of Life Sciences and Medical Sciences, 113 from Division of Earth Sciences, 79 from Division of Information Technological Sciences, 122 from Division of Technological Sciences, and 51 foreign members.

CAS Members, by Academic Division and Year of Election

	Total	Division of Mathematics and Physics	Division of Chemistry	Division of Life Sciences and Medical Sciences	Division of Earth Sciences	Division of Information Technological Sciences	Division of Technological Sciences
Total	1108	198	182	240	196	7	285
1955	172	30	22	60	24		36
1957	18	6	2	5	3		2
1980	283	51	51	53	64		64
1991	210	38	35	34	35		68
1993	59	10	10	11	10		18
1995	59	10	9	12	10		18
1997	58	9	10	12	10		17
1999	55	10	8	11	10		16
2001	56	10	10	12	9		15
2003	58	10	10	11	10		17
2005	51	8	9	12	7	6	9
2007	29	6	6	7	4	1	5

Present CAS Members, by Proportion of Academic Division

Division of Life Sciences and Medical Sciences

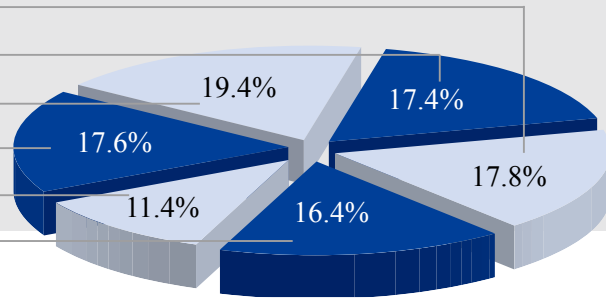

Division of Chemistry

Division of Mathematics and Physics

Division of Technological Sciences

Division of Information Technological Sciences

Division of Earth Sciences

CAS Organizational Structure

